Dear Sir:

INTERIM RESPONSE

No communications regarding any remaining informalities in this allowed patent application have been received by the applicant, and the applicant accordingly assumes that no remaining informalities exist. If the applicant's above-stated assumption is incorrect, kindly forward documents identifying any remaining informalities on the application. In particular, the applicant understands that the drawings filed on 11 March 1999 comply with all specified requirements and that no further amendment is needed.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Brown
